Program

Arrival Day

You must arrive at least one day prior to the boat departure date.

Upon arrival to San José, you can take a taxi to your hotel. There are always taxis available at the airport, even minivans for those of you who carry a lot of gear.

Undersea Hunter will email your pick up time 1 or 2 weeks before trip departure.

Air transport, airport transfers, hotel nights and meals before and after the cruise are not included in the charter.

Day 1

The following day, generally between 8 AM and 1 PM we pick up from certain hotels and transfer everybody by bus to Puntarenas where you will board the vessel. The drive takes about 2 1/2 hours, and gives you a chance to view the lush forest and rich farmland of the region.

Due to occasional low tides our boats may need to depart from the pier earlier in the day. Should this occur, you will be transferred by skiff to the vessel. When all passengers have arrived on board, the vessel will take a 32-36 hour cruise out to Cocos Island.

Day 2

A travel day. There will be time to arrange dive and camera gear as well as enjoy the Pacific and the sunshine. Also, the group of incredibly experienced divers provides plenty of stories to pass the time. There are videos and the experience of the Captain and crew to help you get excited for the diving...as if you need them. In addition, you may want to take this time to take one of our diving courses.

Days 3 - 8

Spent diving the pinnacles around the perimeter of Cocos Island. Divers usually average three dives per day at depths of 60-100 feet (18-30 meters) or more. This, of course, is what the whole trip is about.

Day 9

Make the last 3 dives before the cruise back to Costa Rica and reality!

Day 10

All day to discuss the diving and to compare your adventures!
